

Summer Dullness Disappearing

Mrs. Roosevelt GODOYS RETURN TO CITY Spent Morning Out Shopping FOR THE WINTER SEASON

SENORITA MERCEDES GODOY, Daughter of Counselor of Mexican Embassy, Who Has Returned to Washington.

Mrs. Roosevelt spent the morning shopping along F and G streets, accompanied by her daughter, Ethel. They drove in an open surrey.

E. W. Brown Weds Ida Quinn.
Miss Ida Quinn and E. W. Brown, of Seat Pleasant, Md., were quietly married by the Rev. Mr. Williams, at Trinity Church, Washington, on Wednesday, September 26, at 6 o'clock, the only attendants being Miss Agnes Nalley, a friend of the bride, and J. E. Brown, brother of the bridegroom. The bride was attired in a very pretty gown of cream lainsdowne over silk, with trimmings of rich lace, hat and gloves to match. She carried a bouquet of bride roses.

Ambassador Going Abroad.
The Minister from Norway and Mme. Haug, who have returned to Washington from Bar Harbor, where they have been spending the summer, are occupying the house on Rhode Island avenue, which they leased for occupancy during the construction of their new legation home on Massachusetts avenue.

Miss Loring Returns.
Miss Jean Loring who has been the guest of Representative and Mrs. J. Van Vechten Oloott at Tuxedo, returned to Washington Tuesday evening and is with her father in the family home on K street.

Notes and Personal.
Miss Louise Foraker, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Francis King Wainwright, in her home near Philadelphia, during the Bryn Mawr horse show, is now the guest for the next two weeks of Mrs. Francis H. Laggett, at her country place on the Hudson.

Warren Fairbanks Go West.
Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fairbanks and their little daughter, who spent the summer with the Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks on the North Shore, are on their way to their home in Chicago. Mrs. Fairbanks will remain at the shore until the end of October. She has improved somewhat, but has not by any means recovered from her long and tedious illness.

Mme. de Amaral Still Abroad.
Mme. de Amaral, wife of the counselor of the Brazilian embassy, accompanied by her sister and brother, are now in Switzerland and will not return to America until some time in November. Miss Godinho will return with Mme. de Amaral for the winter here.

Distinguished Visitors Here.
A distinguished party of visitors arrived in Washington last evening in Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt, Consuelo, Duchess of Manchester, and Mrs. Ponsonby, of London, who came over with the duchess a few weeks ago. The Duchess of Manchester was formerly Miss Consuelo Yznaga, of New Orleans and New York, and is the mother of the Duke of Manchester, who married Miss Helen Zimmerman, of Cincinnati. The party will remain at Willard for a few days.

Miss Redfern to Direct Club.
Miss Marie Clothilde Redfern, one of the famous old Washington families of that name and a member of the best literary and social circles here, has lately been appointed directress of the American Woman's Club, in Berlin, Germany.

The counselor of the Mexican embassy and charge d'affaires in the absence of the ambassador, Senor Godoy, with Mme. Godoy and Senorita Mercedes Godoy, have arrived in Washington, and are at the Shoreham. They will go again to housekeeping as soon as a suitable house can be found. Last season they occupied the house recently purchased by the Comptroller of the Currency, William Barrett Ridgely. They spent their summer at Freeport, L. I.

she is to have entire control is for the benefit of American girls who are abroad studying art and music. The club owes much of its success to the efforts of Mrs. C. M. Towers, the president, who has been unceasingly busy ever since her residence in Berlin.

Wagner-McNichols Nuptials.
Warren L. Wagner and Miss Eunice Ruth McNichols, of Riverdale, Md., were quietly married this morning by the Rev. Dr. Alexander Kent, pastor of the People's Church, and immediately left on a trip through New England. They will be at home after November 1 in Riverdale, Md.

Captain Ryan Leaves.
Capt. F. E. C. Ryan, naval attaché of the British embassy for the past two years, left Washington yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Ryan and their children, for New York, and they will sail tomorrow for England. Captain Ryan leaves his post of duty at Washington to be promoted to the rank of rear admiral in the British navy. His successor, Capt. the Hon. Hon. H. L. A. Hood, is now in London, will come to Washington shortly after the British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce return for the winter to the embassy, on Connecticut avenue.

Miss Frederica Morgan Returns.
Miss Frederica Morgan has returned to Washington and joined her parents, Col. and Mrs. James Morris Morcan, from Leesburg, Va., where she has been the house guest of Miss Helen Hibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hibbs, at their country place.

Miss Owenshine to Wed October 16.
Miss Mary Aston Owenshine, daughter of Gen. and Mrs. Samuel Owenshine, of Washington, and Capt. Guy Stevens Norvell, of the Eighth Cavalry, will be married October 16, in St. Margaret's Episcopal Church. Lieut. John Watson, of the Eighth Cavalry, will be the best man and the four ushers have not yet been selected. There will be no bridesmaids. Immediately following the ceremony, which will take place at noon, there will be a small wedding breakfast and reception in the home of the bride's parents on Twenty-first street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kaufman, of 3116 M street northwest, will be at home Sunday evening, September 29, from 7 to 11 o'clock, in honor of the recently announced engagement of their daughter, Carrie to Abe Jacoby, of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Goodman have returned from Walbrook, Md., where they were the guests of relatives.

Mrs. Ned Meyer and daughter Marjory, of New York City, former residents of Washington, are the guests of S. N. Meyer.

Mrs. George Levy, of Indianapolis, Ind., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strauss, of U street.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Epstein and son have returned to their home here after spending the summer at Atlantic City.

Seligfried Fancil, of Savannah, Ga., has joined Mrs. Fancil and daughter, where they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Max Cohen, of Billmore street.

FIND BODY OF GIRL DROWNED IN SOUND
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—With the finding of the body of Miss Beatrice Penton, of New Rochelle, in Long Island sound yesterday, the mystery surrounding her disappearance last Saturday afternoon with Guido De Angelis, the young engineer who had been paying attention to her, was partially cleared. Against the wishes of her parents Miss Penton, who was seventeen years of age, set out in a sailboat with De Angelis. When the young couple failed to return, it was believed that they had been lost in the storm which swept over the sound late Saturday afternoon.

ASSASSINS KILL TWO; NO CLUE TO SLAYERS
SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 27.—A long distance telephone message from Plain Dealing, in Bossier parish, says that a shocking and mysterious double murder was committed a few miles above Bollinger, on the Cotton Belt railroad, yesterday afternoon. The bodies of J. F. Delaney and L. F. Rolle Williams, well-known citizens, were found along the roadside, both having been shot to death. There is so far no clue to the assassin or assassins.
